

Celebrating 40 years in 2018

SALSC ANNUAL CONFERENCE

This year's event takes place on Saturday 22nd September in the Stirling Court Hotel with the theme of Young People in Sport. There will be a variety of speakers delivering throughout the day, including workshops and activities to create an interactive forum for sports volunteers & officers.

Booking forms & the programme are available from salscoffice@gmail.com or on the SALSC website www.salsc.org.uk/page/2018Conference

Bowls Scotland Partnership

SALSC and Bowls Scotland are excited to announce a new partnership going in to the summer of 2018.

Working together both organisations have made a commitment to work to promote the benefits of affiliating to sports councils within SALSC's membership. This is following the recent research carried out by SALSC which evidenced that less than a quarter of bowling clubs are affiliated to their local sports councils.

Finance Director Vacancy

SALSC have an upcoming vacancy for the role of Finance Director on the Board of Directors. We are looking to recruit an enthusiastic and suitable individual with finance experience to fill this key role within the Board.

The successful individual will bring their finance knowledge and skills to the Board, gain experience of supporting and advising a small but dynamic Board and staff team and develop their personal experience in a voluntary capacity.

Ogilvie Ross Workshops

SALSC are delighted to announce an exciting new partnership with Fife based consultants Ogilvie Ross.

From June 1st SALSC and Ogilvie Ross are offering a series of workshops specifically aimed at Sports Councils. This dynamic series of workshops aims to support Sports Councils to develop their skills in communication, recruitment and management of volunteers.
